

III. THE HALF-MOON WESTERS LOW

(‘Last Poems’ No. XXVI)

Andante sostenuto ( $\text{♩} = 64$ ) p

Voice

The half - moon wes - ters low, my love, —

Violin

pp molto sostenuto

— And the wind brings up the rain; — And wide a - part lie we, —

— my love, And seas between the twain. — I know not if it rains, my love, In the land where you do lie; —

poco string.

And oh, so sound you sleep, my love, — You know no more than I. —
